

The excerpts from videos of investigations that circulated on social networks last week accredit the statements of the 4 Ambash Ladies: During long and violent interrogations each family member was charged of raping a brother, a sister, one of their children, with no distinction between age and sex. All were threatened with imprisonment, of losing custody of their children if they refused to cooperate. To each member of the Ambash family it was said that their father, their husband had confessed he was guilty so that he would not come out alive from jail. Whoever did not cooperate with the police would be considered a suspect. Each one cooperating with the police will have the opportunity of having a new start in life. The media and the judicial system represented Daniel Ambash as a "monster", as "the leader of a sadistic cult". Who wants to be the child or the partner of a monster? The weak ones broke down , made false testimony against Daniel Ambash, later retracted them on videos that they themselves published on you tube (in 2011). One child has withdrawn his testimony in a letter sent to the Supreme Court (see website www.danielambash.info: PERJURY and POLICE & SOCIAL WORKERS VIOLENCE). As a consequence the witnesses who had retracted were bothered again by the police, the welfare and the prosecutor's office until they would conform to the prosecution's request... Today all these "obedient cooperators" are themselves caught in their own lies, probably risking very much to disavow again? Especially risking of losing the benefits and support that the Israeli authorities give to their status of "victims", of "new standardized individuals".
